

CURRICULUM VITAE

Tihomir Opetuk, mag.ing.mech.

Tihomir Opetuk is born on 07. September 1984 in Zagreb. He finished elementary school in Vukovina and high Aviation technical school Rudofl Perešin in Velika Gorica. He enrolled Faculty of Mechanical Engineering in 2003. He ends Undergraduate university programme in Industrial Engineering and Management module in 2007 with bachelor thesis on the topic: Implementation of Group Technology in the Process Planning. He ends Graduate university programme in the Industrial Engineering and Management module in 2010 with diploma thesis on the topic: Model Development for the Time estimation in Machining of Rotational Parts. In 2010 he was awarded with Faculty Medal for Academic Achievement.

From August 2010 he worked in the company Končar Distribution and Special Transformers Inc. as a process engineer. Two and a half years he was an assistant of director for the construction of high voltage laboratories, assembly plant, warehouse and offices space.

From February 2012 he works at the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering and Naval Architecture in Zagreb, as an assistant at the Chair of Production Design, Department of Industrial Engineering. As assistant he participates in teaching the courses: „Engineering Logistics“, „Special Topics in Engineering Logistics“, „Logistics Systems Modeling“, „Logistics Management“, „Logistics“ and „Operations research I“. He is the author or co-author of about twenty scientific papers. He is fluent in English language in speech and writing.